

SMALL TALK CARD A

When instructed, use this card to have a discussion with your other classmates. You are responsible for leading this conversation. Follow the instructions below.

- Greet the other members of your group by saying “Hello my name is _____. And you are?”
- Shake hands and say, “It’s nice to meet you.”
- Ask them how they are today.

Before you begin your discussion, inform everyone in your group that this is a pretend conversation that people would have if they were just meeting for the first time.

- Discuss the weather outside. (Do they like it, do they hate it?)
- Finish by asking each person about their interests. (Music, T.V., movies, sports, foods, etc.)

SMALL TALK CARD B

When instructed, use this card to have a discussion with your other classmates. You are responsible for leading this conversation. Follow the instructions below.

- Greet the other members of your group by saying “Hey _____. What’s up?!”
- Talk about the interests they shared during the first round.
- Pretend and discuss other things you might have in common. (Singers, sports teams, T.V. shows, movies, food, etc.)

Before you begin your discussion, inform everyone in your group that this is a pretend conversation that people would have if they were friends but not best friends.

- Talk about a class that you’re both in. Discuss the class, the teacher, the material, homework, etc.
- Close the conversation by pretending to remember a common experience you all shared. (A fun field trip, a game you’ve played together, or a person you all think is cool)

SMALL TALK CARD C

When instructed, use this card to have a discussion with your other classmates. You are responsible for leading this conversation. Follow the instructions below.

Before you begin your discussion, inform everyone in your group that this is a pretend conversation that people would have if they were all close friends.

- Ask everyone how their day is going. When you respond say something like “I’m happy because _____”.
- Catch up on a favorite T.V. show that you all enjoy, the newest song, or everyone’s favorite sports team.

- Say “I’m nervous about tomorrow because _____”.
- Finish by talking about something you plan to do together this weekend. (Play video games, go to the movies, hang out at someone’s birthday party, etc.)
