

You are Dr. Love, a famous love doctor who gets letters from people every day asking for advice about their lives. Choose one of the letters below and write a letter of response on the back of this page. Be sure to practice the guidelines you learned in class about appropriate ways to show affection.

Dear Dr. Love,

Letter A

I really like someone at my school and I don't know what to do. Every time I see this person in the hall, I just freeze up and I can't say anything or even smile! I plan out in my head what I'm going to say the next time I see him/her, but when I actually do, my mind goes blank and I just stand there looking stupid. Please help me!

Signed,
All Locked Up

Dear Dr. Love,

Letter B

My friend and I have been having lots of fights recently. See, we both like the same person, and every time one of us talks to him/her, the other one gets really jealous. I miss how things used to be, but I really like this guy/girl! What should I do?

Please help,
Conflicted

Dear Dr. Love,

Letter C

All my friends talk about anymore is boys/girls. I wish that things could just go back to normal and we could hang out the way we used to. I don't see what the big deal is, but if I say that to them, I know they'll just tease me. Is there something wrong with me? What can I do to get things back to normal?

Thanks,
Confused in Cambridge

